The [illegible] on Blaine.

[illegible] May 29—The latest story of Blaine's [illegible] seems to absorb the interest [illegible] The Times says editorially the [illegible] circles concerning Blaine's re[illegible] on the subject of the sale of a lot of [illegible] stock turns not so much on the [illegible] have on his nomination as on [illegible] have on his election if he is nom[illegible] we like it or not we cannot shut [illegible] the fact that our candidate this year [illegible] strength to command the full [illegible] table of that vote will be with [illegible] candidate open to suspicion of hav[illegible] directly or indirectly with [illegible] when the candidate [illegible] to be influenced in his politi[illegible] connection. OMAHA May 28—A fire this morning destroyed a large frame building on the northwest corner of Ninth and Farnham streets. No insurance. Loss $5,000 or $6,000 on building. A consignment of agricultural machinery worth some $12,000 was stored in the building.

NEW YORK May 28—A fire broke out this afternoon in the moulding mill of John S [illegible] at the corner of Baltic and Nevins streets, Brooklyn. The flames spread rapidly and damaged the property to the extent of about $11,000; $2,000 being loss in stock and machinery and the balance on the building. The property was fully insured.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. May 28—Freeman & Francis stable has been burned. Loss $70,000; insurance $35,000 on the stock and $1,000 on the building. Ten hacks and about 60 horses were burned.

Railroad War

NEW YORK May 28—The railroad war has now fairly commenced, some lines having reduced their fares. Erie Company comes out to night with the announcement that as the reduction was made without Erie's participation therefore Erie reduces still farther and makes the point that the previous reduction only applied from Boston and that therefore Erie proposes to protect New York.

Editor Instantly Killed.

CINCINNATI May 28.—G. M. D. Bloss, one of the editors of the Cincinnati Enquirer and widely known throughout the country, was instantly killed about 7:30 to night while walking on the track of the Little Miami railroad near Branch Hill Station where he resided.

A Non-Christian Funeral.

NEW YORK May 28—The funeral of Baron De Palm, according to the ancient Egyptian rites, was the occasion for the gathering of nearly 40,000 people at the Masonic temple this afternoon. The deceased Baron who came to this country fifteen years ago had expressed a wish that no Christian priest or minister should be allowed to take part in his obsequies. They were conducted by the Theosophical society of this city of which the deceased was a member. Only those having tickets, about 1500 in all, were admitted to the building. The assemblage was well dressed and intensely curious. In regard to the procedure of the funeral rites, they were of a much simpler character than had been expected. The coffin containing the body of the deceased was placed on a dais on the platform. On the coffin were seven lights arranged in the shape of a triangle. Col Olcott acted as master and conducted the ceremonies. With him were six others to make responses. They were habited in long black robes. After a brief interval of music the questions and responses began. They consisted of curiously phrased questions and answers from a regular ancient Egyptian liturgy in regard to the nature of God the human soul and a future state of existence. During the questions and answers incense was burned and the figure of a serpent twisted round a wooden T beside the coffin. An old gentleman who did not like the nature of the ideas set forth in the ritual ordered his daughter to leave the organ, so part of the musical part of the ceremonies had to be dispensed with.

Col Olcott delivered a lengthy address on the nature of theosophy and said the deceased baron, after a long life in courts and a career of ambition, finding nothing in the creeds to satisfy his inquiries in regard to a future state found consolation in theosophy. After the rites were over the remains were removed to a vault in the Lutheran cemetery and will, it is said, be cremated as soon as [illegible] sion can be obtained from the authorities. The body was embalmed soon after death.

Efforts to Prohibit Liquor Selling.

NEW YORK, May 28.—The efforts to stop liquor selling yesterday were a perfect farce. There was open defiance everywhere. Thousands of places including gardens, music halls, etc., were open as usual. Only 67 arrests were made for violating the law.

Brisk Grain Trade.

The grain export trade was surprisingly brisk on Saturday. Charter engagements are reported to the amount of 79,000 bushels grain from this market, 11,900 from Philadelphia and 32,000 from Baltimore. This unanticipated activity is attributed among grain merchants to the combined influences of two causes, prospects of war in Europe and the rise in the gold premium.

Another Fatal Colliery Accident.

NEW YORK, May 28—Another accident occurred at Pottsville yesterday. Two were killed. Three of those injured in the recent explosion will die.

Burglary.

NEW HAVEN, May 28—On Saturday night burglars opened the safe of J. B. Kibby & Son, 316 and 318 Chapel street and carried away $30,000 worth of jewelry.

Californians in New York.

NEW YORK May 29—Lucky Baldwin arrived here from Chicago where he has been dangerously ill. He is still poorly. James H. Latham is still detained here by serious illness. Among Californians here are ex Mayor Miller, Surveyor Hardenburgh of Sacramento, Gov Downey, John Shaw, John Livingston, Peter Donahue, Capt Dardle, Calhoun Benham, Haughtaling of San Francisco.

President Orton will not Resign.

A rumor that was current here that Wm. Orton had resigned the presidency of the Western Union Telegraph is without foundation.

Commodore Vanderbilt very Low.

Late last night Commodore Vanderbilt was taken with a sudden chill and his physicians remained with him through the night. He spent a restless night and this morning was very low although perfectly conscious. None of the members of his family are permitted to see him.

An Insane Mother Drowns her Children and then Herself.

CHICAGO May 29—Saturday night the body of a woman was found floating in the lake near Lincoln park, a supposed case of accidental drowning, but subsequently the bodies of two infants aged respectively 2 years and 5 months were discovered near the same place, and the three were identified as being Fredericka Tochen and her children. Upon the inquest, evidence was adduced tending to show that the woman was subject to fits and derangement and that she took the children to the lake and after throwing in the elder jumped in herself holding the baby tightly in her arms. She was 26 years of age and a German by birth.

Fatal Shooting Affray.

MEMPHIS May 29—Passengers from Hot Springs Arkansas report intense excitement there Saturday over the shooting of John C Hale, a prominent citizen of that place and son in law of Ex Governor Brownlow of this State (Tenn.) on last Saturday by Wm P Walsh, postmaster and a prominent politician. The difficulty grew out of Walsh's building a store on ground claimed by Hale.

Southern Presbyterian General Assembly.

SAVANNAH May 27—The Presbyterian General Assembly closed its session to day. Delegates to the Alliance in July 1877 were elected. The committee to whom was referred the resolutions from the Northern Assembly in regard to fraternal relations reported the following which was unanimously adopted and telegraphed to Brooklyn:

We already most cordially enter on fraternal relations with your body on any forms honorable to both parties and then as an explanation of what our feelings are we send our action taken in answer to the overture from the St Louis Presbytery which is, Resolved. That the action of the Baltimore conference, approved by the Assembly at St Louis, explains with sufficient clearness the position of our church, but inasmuch as it is represented by the overture that misapprehension exists in the minds of some of our people as to the spirit of this action in order to show our disposition to [illegible] on our part all real or seeming hindrance to friendly feeling, this Assembly explicitly declares that while condemning certain acts and deliverances of the Northern General Assembly, no acts or deliverances of the Southern General Assembly are to be construed or admitted as impugning in any way the Christian character of the Northern General Assembly nor of the historical bodies of which it is the successor.

Presbyterian General Assembly

NEW YORK May 27—The Presbyterian General Assembly after providing for the election of delegates to the Presbyterian Alliance to be held in Edinburgh in July 1877 took up the order of the day, being an overture from the synod of Missouri in regard to Roman Catholic baptism. This overture protested against the decision of the last General Assembly leaving each church session to decide for itself whether Roman Catholic converts to Presbyterianism should be again baptized. It declares that the Roman Catholic church was no part of the Church of Christ and that [illegible] of its [illegible] should be regarded as valid. Rev. Dr Wm [illegible] spoke at length in support of the overture. After sub[illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] General Assembly of 18[illegible] [illegible] that the Roman Catholic church was [illegible] part of the Church of Christ [illegible] that the [illegible] [illegible] of Satan [illegible] It held [illegible] [illegible] truth [illegible] [illegible] corrupt [illegible] [illegible] He maintained that the [illegible] were [illegible] [illegible] which he considered [illegible] the validity of [illegible] baptism would be [illegible] the [illegible] be Christian which it was really a form of pagan[illegible]ism

Rev. Drs Knox and Chamberlain also spoke on the same subject. Dr [illegible] organization of the Catholic church to the [illegible] which [illegible] [illegible] warm [illegible] bosom [illegible] and when it was warmed it turned [illegible] and poisoned his family. That was what this church would do and was doing. He believed that if there was any organization in the world which bore any likeness to the dragon—that old scorpion of the Apocalypse—it was the Catholic Church.

Rev Mrs Briggs said they could [illegible] pull down the Catholic Church. It was [illegible] [illegible] deeply rooted.

A motion then prevailed to refer the whole matter to a special committee to report to the next meeting, and the assembly adjourned.

NEW YORK May 29—The session of the Presbyterian General Assembly was resumed in Brooklyn. The report and resolutions of the committee on home missions and sustentation was called up and the first and second resolutions, [illegible] in regard to sustentation, were adopted, and the proposed rules for the guidance of the home mission board were taken up and after debate adopted. A motion to re[illegible] was after an animated debate carried.

The resolution passed by the Southern Assembly at Savannah was read and received with applause. Dr Prime then said that the question was now settled. The days of separation and sorrow were over and fraternal relations again established. The action on the overture was unanimous. The reverend gentleman then read the Southern resolution and the committee recommended that the same resolution declarative of the spirit in which this action was taken be adopted. The resolution is as follows: In order to show the disposition on our part to avoid all seeming hindrance to friendly feeling this assembly explicitly declares that while condemning certain acts and deliverances of the Southern general assembly, no acts or deliverances of this assembly, or of the historical bodies of which the present general assembly is the successor, are to be confirmed or admitted as impugning in any way the Christian character of the southern general assembly. The resolution was received with loud applause. Judge Strong then moved the adoption of the resolution which was adopted by a standing vote and amid great applause.

The Friends of the Hawaiian Treaty Demand an Investigation of the Lobbying Charges.

WASHINGTON May 28—Several days ago Representative Luttrell asked the investigation by the committee on ways and means of the newspaper charge that the Pacific coast lobby expended $300,000 in securing the passage through the House of the bill giving effect to the Hawaiian treaty. Yesterday he received the following dispatch from San Francisco: "Your position is correct and sustained by all the friends of the Hawaiian treaty here. A strict and prompt investigation will prove that this infamous business was started solely to damage the passage of the bill." The telegram was signed by J. C. Merrill & Co and other leading firms.

Cox's Coinage Bill.

Cox will report to morrow or as soon as he can get leave a bill authorizing the coinage of $20,000,000 silver beside that allowed by the act of last year and permitting the government to buy bullion with any money—national bank notes or legal tender—in the treasury not otherwise appropriated to the amount of one million dollars. This money after one million dollars worth has been bought the remaining millions are to be bought with the proceeds of the silver coined. This bill seems to have the favor of both sides of the House and it will probably become a law and will in that case authorize silver coin to the amount of the whole fractional currency and $20,000,000 over.

More of Speaker Kerr.

The Sun's Washington special says that Kerr's friends are very nervous and uneasy about the story of Kerr's corruption. Kerr is very weak and suffering dreadfully from his illness, and the mental distress caused by the charge makes his friends despair of his life. The high reputation which Kerr has borne as a public man absolutely forbids any one who knows anything of his record from believing that he took into his confidence a Republican doorkeeper in transactions of this kind.

Conkling's Friends Rejoice.

The World's Washington special says that Conkling's friends are secretly rejoicing at the latest charge against Blaine. They think that Blaine cannot possibly explain and get a fair report from the committee before the Cincinnati convention meets. They admit, though these continuous attacks are making him friends in the Republican party.

It is asserted that H. E. Evans, of Missouri is to be the new Commissioner of the General Land Office vice Burdett resigned. He is a Radical and opposed to Bristow.

A Rag Baby Compromise.

The Herald's Washington special intimates that a sort of bargain is likely to be patched up between the Hard money and Soft members in Congress. The Soft money men are very active, and it is not probable that the Hard money men will stand firm. There is some reason to suspect that there may be a gold speculation behind as a propelling force as two or three well known Wall street gold speculators have of late been seen on the floor and an attempt to create alarm about the possible action of the banking and currency committee, may be designed mainly to give gold an additional stir upwards. Both Houses are undoubtedly in favor of repealing the resumption act. In the meantime we are to have more silver.

Secretary Robeson Demands to be Heard.

WASHINGTON, May 28—Secretary Robeson has written Whitthorne another letter demanding to be heard before the House committee on naval affairs. The letter closes as follows: "In regard to the additional resolution recited in your letter saying in effect that permission will be given to any officer in the navy department to have examined any witness whose testimony may affect him I confess that I fail to see the value of such permission while such officer is kept in ignorance of the points upon which he is supposed to be affected and even of the names of the witnesses who have testified upon them. Again calling the attention of your committee to these matters and suggesting that disregard of them is disregard of the ordinary rights of American citizens I still wait the action of your committee. Your obedient servant

GEO. M. ROBESON

The Senate Justified—The House Condemned.

The Times Washington correspondent justifies the Senate in doing nothing to break the dead lock with the House. The position that the House is taking is one of absolute domination and if they don't yield and meet the Senate in a fair spirit of compromise on the differences between the two bodies on the first of July there will be no appropriations to pay a dollar of salaries or to do anything else which may not proceed under contracts payable out of the appropriations for the present fiscal year. The President, the heads of departments, all clerks, foreign ministers and consuls, judges of courts and even members of Congress and other employes will not be able to draw their salaries. The Democrats think when this time comes, the Senate will accept and bills can get through, but Senators say they will let the House take the responsibility. There are it should be said some signs that the leaders of the Democracy will not be able to carry out this plan as the rank and file are inclined to assert their independence and refuse to follow such leaders.

Supreme Court Decisions.

WASHINGTON May 29—The supreme court decision delivered by Justice Field in the case of Welton against the State of Missouri holds that a license tax required for the sale of goods is in effect a tax upon the goods themselves and that a State license taxing the sale of goods from other States and requiring no such license tax from persons selling similar products of the taxing State is in conflict with the power of Congress to regulate commerce among the several states and therefore unconstitutional.

Justice Clifford's opinion in the case of Wm. E. (?) et al vs the United States wherein the claimants asked a correction of the boundaries of the Arroyo de la Laguna grant, because of error in its original translation. It is held that the 15 years acquiescence by the appellants leaves them without legal remedy.

What Don Cameron may do?

WASHINGTON May 29—Reports as to what Don Cameron will do with regard to his appointment as Secretary of War assert very positively that he will decline the place. Members of the Cabinet feel certain he will accept although his father says so far as he knows the matter has not been finally settled.

Hawaiian Lobby Investigation.

The ways and means committee to day commenced the investigation ordered by the House on the motion of Luttrell last Friday, concerning the statement published as a special dispatch to the Baltimore Gazette that $300,000 had been paid to secure the passage of the Hawaiian treaty bill.

The Gazette's correspondent H. A. Preston being asked to state the authority on which he based his dispatch said he desired in the first place to remark that this paragraph [illegible] that the [illegible] [illegible] it was appropriated by the lobby. [illegible] to testify that in conversation with Samuel Ward [illegible] the latter [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] this [illegible] that [illegible] he had just [illegible] $300,000 [illegible] to secure the passage [illegible] to carry the Hawaiian treaty [illegible] Ward [illegible] knew [illegible] large share [illegible] [illegible] based the [illegible] partly on his own information and partly [illegible] made by Representative Kelley [illegible] in his speech made on the bill [illegible] [illegible] that the bill had the [illegible] well [illegible] that ex-members and [illegible] of the House [illegible] in [illegible] [illegible] were loafing about the House in support [illegible]

Witness also referred to the speech of the chairman of the committee, Morrison, who said that friends of the measure were making every exertion to secure the bill's passage.

A. M. Gibson, correspondent of the New York Sun, which published a similar paragraph on the subject was next examined. He gave Preston as his direct informant, though he had heard floating rumors previously. He did not think the dispatch conveyed the impression that money was paid to Congressmen but that it was that money expended in Washington usually goes to gentlemen [illegible] whose [illegible] in [illegible] how [illegible] Witness further stated that his dispatch was partly based on his belief that King Kalakaua knew that there was money and our government appropriations [illegible] were intended merely to promote the ratification of this treaty.

The committee have issued a summons for Ward to appear to be examined as a witness.

Jurisdiction in the Impeachment Trial.

WASHINGTON May 29—Several senators this morning have expressed the opinion that the vote upon the question of jurisdiction in the Belknap impeachment trial will not be reached before midnight. Dawes took the floor as soon as the Senate closed and made a lengthy argument in favor of the jurisdiction.

Blaine's Investigation.

The sub judiciary committee met at noon to day and continued the investigation into the [illegible] [illegible] charge against Ex Speaker Blaine. J. P. McGuire of Washington testified that in March 1873 he was at the Fifth Avenue Hotel in New York with J. B. Wilson and J. C. S. Harrison. Wilson went out of the room and Harrison said to witness McGuire: "I can tell you something that will make those fellows (Union Pacific men) squirm." Harrison then asked witness if he had seen the caricatures in one of the papers representing Blaine up a tree. Witness said he knew all about that picture. When Wilson came in Harrison said McGuire knows all about Blaine.

Wilson said: "You must not say anything about that, for it might ruin Blaine and hurt the Republican party." Witness said he led them to believe he knew all about it when he really knew nothing only what he had just heard them say. Witness knew nothing whatever of his own knowledge about Blaine's connection with these bonds. Witness saw Wilson after he testified here and asked him to explain what he meant by saying to witness in New York that it would ruin Blaine if this story got out. Wilson said he only meant that it would become scandal and ruin Blaine whether true or not. Witness repeated he had no knowledge of any connection that Blaine had with the bonds referred to.

W. F. Denckla of New York testified that he was contractor for Little Rock & Fort Smith railroad in 1870. He was to receive bonds as compensation for his services as contractor. He did not perform any service but sold his contract out to Warren Fisher who agreed to pay him in 300 bonds and $195,000 in stock. Witness sold the bonds and found the stock worthless. He traded some of the bonds for land and some he loaned to a friend. Witness knows nothing whatever of the 75 bonds of that road going into the U. P. Co's hands. He never knew of it until he read it recently in the papers and knows nothing of Blaine's connection with them. Witness heard the bonds were selling for 60 to 70 in 1871 and tried to sell his for that but could not do it. He would not have taken less than 30 to 40 for them any time while he owned them.

Warren Fisher of Boston and C. W. Huntington have been subpoenaed by the House committee which is investigating Blaine.

Investigation of the Charge against Speaker Kerr.

WASHINGTON May 29—Clymer's committee met at 1 o'clock to day and examined Harney, former doorkeeper of the House of Representatives in regard to the payment of money to Speaker Kerr for an appointment in the army of A. P. Green in 1866. Speaker Kerr, Morrison, Scott Lord, Hereford, Springer and others were present. When asked about the payment of money the witness refused to testify, and when told he would be compelled to do so, he asked for time to consider the matter.

By advice of counsel, Kerr said if the witness knew anything relating to him he was willing he should tell the truth about it.

Witness. Does Mr Kerr want me to tell what I know?

Kerr—Yes, I want you to tell the truth about it.

Witness—Then I will tell what I know, and I will tell the truth too. Witness then said he met Green in the House and helped him to get an appointment in the army as second lieutenant. Green paid witness $4,500 and witness paid it into Kerr's hands in the corridor east of the hall of the House and Kerr put it in his pocket. Witness said I am not ready to be cross-questioned by Kerr on this matter.

After Harney's examination Kerr said he did not want to leave without saying a few words and asked to be sworn. This having been done he said: "I only want to remark to day that I deny every material statement made by this witness affecting my personal honor and official integrity; that is all. If I were in sufficient health I would make a statement of the circumstance which led to this investigation in connection with an anonymous letter I received, but I do not feel able to do so to day. I will further say, conscientiously, I never knew this witness in my life, but I do not say nor wish to be understood as saying, that he did not introduce Green. I do not know six doorkeepers about this House now though they are supposed to be my political friends. I never consciously exchanged one minute's conversation between Heaven and earth with that person. I never knew him, and he was never at my room as he has stated, and, of course, I never received any money from him nor from any one else."

Crosby, chief clerk of the war department, produced papers relative to Augustus P. Green. The first was a descriptive list dated June 12, 1866, and signed by Mr Kerr recommending Green to be appointed 2d lieutenant in the army and certifying that he was a person of good character and that he believed Green was mentally, morally and physically qualified to perform the duty of lieutenant in the U. S. army. The next paper produced was also dated June 12, 1866 and was from Nelson Taylor addressed to the War Department asking a return of the papers he had filed in behalf of Green. These papers were returned and afterwards given by Green to him. The third paper was one filed with the President by Hon. Myer Strauss requesting the appointment of Green. The fourth paper was addressed to the Secretary of War by Kerr dated July 31, 1866 as follows: "Will you have the kindness to send the commission of Augustus P. Green to his address at Madison avenue, New York city. He was nominated by me and the 5th was as follows: "House of Representatives, Washington April 18, 1876. Gen. E. D. Townsend, Adjutant General. My Dear Sir: May I trouble you to inform me whether there is now a man named Aug. P. Green of the rank of first lieutenant or of any higher rank and if such person is not in the army now whether he has been within four or five years, and how he got out? Your attention will greatly oblige. I have the honor to be very truly yours, Wm. C. Kerr." To this address Gen. Townsend replied that Augustus P. Green was first lieutenant in the fourth artillery, and was dismissed the service by a sentence of court martial March 1873. He was appointed in the regular army July 29 1866. He had previously served as an officer of volunteers. Committee adjourned.

The Scandal Touching Kerr.

WASHINGTON, May 29—The testimony of Green, taken last Saturday, was given to the public to day. The only new points are that he confesses giving money to Harney for his appointment, but he never believed and does not know that Kerr received it.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate.

WASHINGTON May 29—The Senate met this morning at 10 o'clock and immediately resumed the consideration of the articles of impeachment of Belknap with closed doors.

House.

Page introduced a bill providing for the redemption of National Bank notes payable in gold at the San Francisco Sub Treasury.

Adams offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS: The fact is apparent that all branches of manufacturing, mechanical and mining pursuits are at this time greatly depressed, and that all legislation which tends to increase this embarrassment by unsettling values or rendering manufacturing, mechanical or mining operations uncertain is unwise and injudicious: therefore

Resolved, That in the judgment of this House legislation affecting the tariff is at this time inexpedient.

The previous question having been ordered Morrison moved to reconsider that vote and it was reconsidered. Yeas 119, nays 97.

Morrison then rose to debate the question and thus giving the resolution to debate it went over until Monday next.

The House then went into committee of the whole, Haskin in the chair, on the bill to devote the proceeds of the sale of public lands for educational purposes and Walker who had reported the bill from the committee on education and labor proceeded to address the committee in explanation and advocacy of the bill.

Several speeches were made on the question of tariff including one by Chittenden who ascribed the drain on our foreign commerce to the defective tariff law. Tea and coffee should be taxed and the tax on other articles might be reduced fifteen per cent. A tariff bill containing these provisions might be made in ten lines which would restore prosperity to the country.

Morrison replying to Kasson said he did not think a vote on the tariff bill could be reached this session. Morrison said so far as he is concerned he should do everything possible to get the appropriation bills through, then if time was left he would ask consideration of the tariff bill.

[illegible] from the committee on commerce asked leave to report a resolution in regard to [illegible] treaty with China on the subject of immigration, but Holman insisted on interposing a motion to adjourn and it [illegible] accordingly at [illegible] adjourned until Wednesday.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

LONDON May 28—A Berlin dispatch states that the Porte has informally notified the powers that it will on no account consent to two months' armistice.

The Servians and Bulgarians.

A Berlin correspondent telegraphs that the Servian militia number 100,000 infantry, 10,000 cavalry with 300 pieces of artillery ready for action. Their hospital utensils have been purchased at Vienna. The southern Sclavonian journals freely assert that the Servian Government supplies the Bulgarian insurgents with arms and ammunition and also sends them experienced leaders. The Bulgarians are occupying the Balkan passes.

Salonica Murderers Sentenced.

SALONICA, May 28—Four more Turks who took part in the murder of the consuls have been sentenced to death and 13 to various terms of penal servitude, some for life.

C. Perrier about to Die.

PARIS May 28—Cassimer Perrier is hopelessly ill and his death is momentarily expected.

England and the Memorandum of the Three Powers.

The following semi-official statement is published here. It is still hoped England will make known the points of Prince Gortschakoff's memorandum, which she wishes to have modified so that an understanding may be brought about between all the powers with a view to united action in the East. It is considered that a European conference would be a suitable means of facilitating such an understanding. The memorandum has been sent to the Porte.

Large Shipment of Ammunition to English Stations in the Mediterranean.

LONDON May 28—The Standard this morning says one hundred tons of gunpowder and a million cartridges have just been dispatched from Woolwich to Gibraltar, Malta, and the Mediterranean fleet. This is quite independent of the ordinary supply. It was stated in Portsmouth Saturday that all the available workmen are to be placed at work on the ships which are nearest to sea-going condition. The turret ship Thunder is understood to be the first whose completion will be thus pushed forward.

War Indications in Europe.

LONDON May 29—The Times says since Friday afternoon insurances at Lloyds have been made to cover war.

Bank of England.

LONDON May 29—The amount of bullion gone into the Bank of England to day is £10[illegible],000. Consols 95 for money and account. U S bonds, 10 40s 106¾; new 5s 105¾. Erie 12, preferred 16.

FRANKFORT May 29—U S bonds, new fives 114¾.

Liverpool May 29—Wheat receipts for the past week from Atlantic ports 13,250 quarters. Pacific ports 29,000; other sources, 7,850. Receipts of corn, 20,000 quarters.

Scheme for Settling the Turkish Difficulty.

LONDON May 29—A special from Paris says there are some persons who maintain that if the united powers asked Turkey to cede Herzegovina to Montenegro and Bosnia to Servia, charging the new principalities with a part of the Turkish debt and settling the internal condition of these provinces in a manner meriting general confidence Turkey would not hesitate to agree.

Spanish Royal Arsenal Burned.

MADRID May 29—El Cronista announces the burning of the machinery of the factory at the Royal Arsenal at Carthagena.

England Preparing for War.

LONDON May 29—On Thursday and Friday Admiral Stark, controller of the navy, and Barnes, surveyor of docks and yards, made an elaborate investigation of the work on hand at Portsmouth yard, with a view of ascertaining the time and money it will require to prepare for sea the various ships now building there. This visit considerably strengthens the impression prevailing at Portsmouth that the government purposes taking a bold position respecting the Eastern question.

Crop Prospects in Europe.

LONDON May 29—Mark Lane Express says: Although it is impossible to speak with certainty, it appears probable that a change of weather will materially alter the state of the country and modify the surmises of disaster regarding crops. Ordinarily this change would have depressed the wheat market but the operations of continental buyers have counteracted the weather and maintained the fair [illegible] of prices which was noticeable in the previous week. This continued inquiry from the continent is the most prominent feature of the trade. If it should continue in the face of favorable growing weather here and abroad, the fact would indicate that stocks are really as nearly exhausted as has been represented, and that farmers have not on hand any wheat which many supposed was only being held back for higher prices. All feeding stuffs have fairly maintained their value. Oats, in the face of heavy supplies, have advanced nearly a shilling per quarter.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

The Colonist says Nanaimo is to have a steam sawmill, sash, door, tub and bucket factory.

The merchants of Nanaimo are favorable to rendering support to induce bi weekly trips of the Cariboo Fly.

The bark Charlotte Clarke, which sailed from England on the 1st of January for Victoria is now fully due. She has a cargo of assorted merchandise on board.

We understand that negotiations for the construction of a railway from Esquimalt to Nanaimo by a private company continue, and that there is every prospect of a satisfactory settlement being arrived at through the mediation of Lord Carnarvon. A company already holding large interests that would be favorably affected by the construction of the line have made a proposition which is likely to meet with favor at Ottawa, and if adopted will insure the commencement of the road next spring.

A heavy thunder storm visited Victoria on the 23d. A young man was walking in the yard adjoining the lot on which stands the Girl's School, on Broughton street. Immediately after a vivid flash and peal he heard a great crash in the schoolroom and a noise, as he expressed it, "as if the building was full of thunder." The noise continued for at least a minute. Mrs McDonnel, who resides next to the school, also heard a great crash in the building and mentioned the fact to some gentlemen, who opened the front door and entered the schoolroom. Their astonishment was unbounded when they saw the green baize doors near the entrance had been torn from their hinges; that the blackboards lay on the floor, and that the lid of every desk, of which there are 144, was open and thrown back. Several of the lids had been torn from their hinges, others were partially so, but without an exception every desk stood open, and some were half filled with water, as if a bucketful had been dashed into them.

IN RE FITZHUGH ET AL

This is the way the Chicago Times sets up Fitzhugh, the late doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, and some other gentlemen of the same cloth:

That unclean creature, Fitzhugh, having rejected the opportunity offered him to retire quietly and voluntarily from the position of door keeper of the House of Representatives will be kicked out to day. He seems to be altogether the most incorrigible idiot as well as the most disreputable character among the legion of confederate vultures gathered to the carrion feast at Washington last winter. The majority of the House became acquainted with his true character long ago, and it is little to their credit that they have waited until public exposure of their disgraceful proteg[illegible] compelled them to act, instead of at once getting rid of the reproach of his presence. The case will be made the most of by the other party as a matter of course, but before they proceed to exalt themselves upon the pinnacle of superior virtue it may be as well for them to remember that a person of the name of Ordway was sergeant at arms of the House; that one French still is sergeant at arms of the Senate, and that both are good Republicans. Fitzhugh's evil deeds were done before he obtained the office, and beyond his exhibitions of amazing folly, nothing is charged against his official life. The reverse is the case with Ordway and French. Grave charges have been made against the latter and put in a shape so circumstantial that immediate investigation ought to have been ordered by the Senate, but the majority in that body have exhibited no disposition to move and the small minority evidently lack either the energy or the power to press the matter. Ordway has been for some time under investigation by a committee of the House and the revelation of his offenses against law and honesty are said to embrace almost every conceivable violation of public trust, including the payment of a regular salary as an employe of the House to his own five year old child, the giving of deputies commissions to friends who wished to travel at government cost and scores of other devices for filling his own and his friends pockets with illegitimate gains. Fitzhugh's disposition to misuse his place for private gain may have been strong enough, but he has lacked and will never now obtain the opportunity to rob the treasury after the fashion charged upon Republican officials.

Bolting Democrats.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29—A number of Democrats opposed to the re-election of Wm A. Piper to Congress for this district met yesterday afternoon for conference, and after exchange of opinions resolved to hold a convention Monday June 19th, to place in nomination some one in opposition to Mr Piper.

Postoffice Arrangements for San Francisco.

On the urgent recommendation of Postmaster Coey, the city is to be divided into four postal districts, each with a branch office. The main office on Washington street will constitute one station, another will be located at the intersection of Sixth and Market streets, another at Polk and Pine streets, and another at the junction of Howard and Twentieth streets. The last three places mentioned will be known as district stations and designated as stations A, B, C. All mail matter for each district will be forwarded from the main office and distributed from the station. The collection of letters and papers in each district will be returned to the station, and thence by wagon to the main office, where the forwarding of the outside mail matter will be done. At each station will also be located a money order department, where orders will be issued and paid. Registration of letters can be made at the stations as well as at the main office.

Centennial Money Hunt.

The finance committee of the Centennial committee will to-day begin canvassing the city for funds, to be used in the local celebration.

No Session of Stock Boards To Day.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29—At the close of the sessions to-day, the stock boards finally decided to adjourn over until Wednesday, in honor of Decoration Day. The Produce Exchange also voted to adjourn over, and all the banks and many other principal places of business will close. The day promises to be observed more generally than on any previous year.

Smallpox.

Nineteen cases of smallpox have been reported up to date, two of which were Chinamen. Five deaths have occurred, including one Chinaman. The health officers take a serious view of the matter, and are taking all requisite means to prevent the spread of the contagion.

Monstrous Freak of Nature.

A child was born a few weeks since in the valley back of the Mission, whose head was the exact counterpart of that of an ox. The child died on the third day after its birth. It survived its mother nearly two days, however; for when she was injudiciously shown her offspring, she was so shocked that she was [illegible] with convulsions which terminated fatally a few hours afterward.

Civil Rights Case Decided.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Judge Sawyer, of the U. S. circuit court, rendered a decision this forenoon in the case of Green vs. Maguire, the plaintiff being the colored man who was refused admission by Maguire into his theater some months ago and who brought suit under the civil rights act in consequence. The decision was oral, and in it Judge Sawyer declared that the portion of the act of Congress providing that any manager of a theater or similar institution should be guilty of misdemeanor, who should refuse admission to any colored person, was unconstitutional and void. The Judge quoted and read at some length supreme court actions in similar cases in which opinions were expressed coinciding with his own. Assistant District Attorney Van Buren, for plaintiff, gave notice of appeal of the case.

LETTER FROM THE EXHIBITION.

PHILADELPHIA, May 13, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Permit me to call the attention of your readers to the great embarrassment I am laboring under for want of printed documents giving a condensed statement of the salubrity, climate, prices of land, productions, mineral resources, etc., of our State. I received a few copies of a pamphlet on the products of Oregon, which I suppose came from the office of the O & C R. R. Co., of your city. But these were taken in a few hours by farmers, mechanics, laboring men, merchants, etc., who come to our exhibit by hundreds, each day, to admire our material, and inquire about the country that produces such fine grain, grass, wool, timber and fruit. It is true I have the assistance of a Mr Tappan, and Mr DuBois but neither of them being farmers, and Mr Tappan having only a superficial knowledge of our State it is impossible for them to satisfactorily impart all that information that the practical farmer, mechanic, miner, or lumberman contemplating emigrating to a new country like ours requires.

I am receiving valuable voluntary assistance from Mr James Bruce and also from E. W. Ryan, Esq., formerly of your city. But as Mr Bruce's official duties as an international juryman will call him away in a few days and as my duties in the U S Commission unavoidably consume a part of my time a concise printed statement for gratuitous distribution among the crowds that have thus far thronged our stand would I think do much to enhance the interest of our State.

Oregon's exhibit is commented favorably upon, both by the people and the press who visit it. It was quite humiliating to me yesterday to see some iron men (scientists and experts) gathered around the collective California exhibit of the C. P. R. R. Co. and discussing the excellent qualities of the pig and ore of the Oregon iron of California. On closer examination I found it was the same pig and ore that I went to Oswego and marked to be sent forward for our state. The circumstance was so embarrassing and ludicrous that I neglected to correct the mistake. On inquiry afterwards of the superintendent of the department relative to the matter I was informed that a part of the ore and pig had been sent to the Academy of Science, a part to the University of California and the remainder boxed, sent forward and placed in the California mineral exhibit of the C. P. R. R. Co. Well, I suppose this is all right and although nine out of ten who examine it will pronounce it California iron it shows at least that the people of that State generally, and railroad men and capitalists in particular, are alive to their own interests. I was also highly gratified to see fine specimens of Coos Bay coal in the same exhibit. It reminded me forcibly of what might have been done for our own State. Yours, etc.,

A. J. DUFUR, Com'r for Oregon.

PROFESSOR SEELYE'S CIVIL SERVICE PRESCRIPTION

Mr Seelye, the Professor Congressman from Massachusetts, has on several occasions evinced a clearer appreciation of public affairs than almost any other man in the House His remarks on the currency question earl in the session presented the issue between a gold currency and paper money in the fewest possible words and made the matter so plain that argument in favor of a specie basis for national currency seemed unnecessary He has now put the whole question of civil service reform, or rather the matter of remedying existing and acknowledged evils in the civil service into a single sentence

We can reform all these things by having a President who will think the office a solemn trust—a self forgetting man courageous and above suspicion who will appoint men to office on merit and remove only for cause

That is certainly the great need of the times a President who will think the high office a solemn trust and not a personal perquisite Such a man, in the nature of things, must be a self forgetting man, who would appoint men to office on merit and remove only for cause The whole system of abuses which have crept into the public service, have crept in through the one capital misconception of the nature of official duty and responsibility Whoever has made up his mind to accept the Democratic invention of official spoils as the true idea of political responsibility and obligation has already become unfit for the Presidency, because that idea sinks the Presidency into a mere convenience for partisan and personal jobbery instead of regarding it as a solemn trust for the whole people.

So far Mr Seelye is unquestionably right. But what are the chances of getting such a President? We do not mean to ask what are the chances in this particular election now approaching, but what are they generally, one term with another? There is no way by which such a President can be chosen uniformly, or at least in most cases, the remedy will prove far from complete. A vicious administration may do as much evil as a good President can undo during his four years of service As elections, national as well as State, are conducted, from the preliminary steps of the nomination down to the day of the counting of ballots, there is much reason to fear that the efforts of those who really desire such a President as Mr Seelye describes will oftener fail than succeed. If this is true, the proposed remedy will be inadequate for want of some way to secure the condition precedent— [illegible] man for chief magistrate of the [illegible] Better put the whole matter of appointments and removals under [illegible] so as to compel selfish and [illegible] Presidents, as far as possible, to [illegible] good, self-forgetting [illegible] regarding the high trust [illegible], would do voluntarily [illegible] would in no [illegible] the action of a good [illegible] he would have no desire to [illegible] to such a law, while for a [illegible] forgetful of everybody but [illegible] and his special retainers as our [illegible], such restraint [illegible] The whole subject [illegible] appointments can be regulated [illegible] in this country just as well as [illegible] or continental Europe, and [illegible] the only sure road to the safe [illegible] of a pure government.

SPEAKER KERR CORNERED.

[illegible] likely to come to [illegible] that the whole business of [illegible] investigation is a delusion [illegible], or else that they have pushed [illegible] farther than the exigencies [illegible] popular demand would justify [illegible] we infer from the disclosures which [illegible] yesterday with regard to the [illegible] of Mr. Speaker Kerr Certainly it [illegible] never intended that he should be [illegible] in such an awkward position. He [illegible] and the Speaker of the [illegible] House of Representatives, [illegible] is understood by all who have [illegible] the course of Congressional in[illegible] the past winter, that the pro[illegible] were to be so conducted as not [illegible] Democrats. There has been [illegible] blunder somewhere. In face of [illegible] known and unmistakable under[illegible] of the Democratic investigators, [illegible] forward and testifies that he [illegible] given [illegible] to a person of influence [illegible] Washington to buy a lieutenancy [illegible]; and then the person to [illegible] he gave the money—$4 500— [illegible] in direct terms that he did [illegible] the money and did give [illegible] Mr. Kerr, who did then and there [illegible]. This is a little the worst case [illegible] have had, except perhaps that of Bel[illegible]. At the time of the attempt to im[illegible] Mr. Blount, it was determined that [illegible] member of either House of Congress [illegible] not be impeached, so it is presum[illegible] Mr. Kerr will not deem it necessary [illegible] sign in order to leave a ques[illegible] of jurisdiction behind which to hide [illegible] the day of wrath comes We are [illegible] to see what the Democratic and [illegible] House of Representatives will [illegible] about this case, and shall watch with [illegible] interest for such outbursts of indig[illegible] and horrification in the Democrat[illegible] journals as filled their columns when [illegible] corruption was uncovered

[illegible] war about the Sick Man appears immi[illegible] Preparations for such an event are [illegible] forward in a manner to indicate that [illegible] opening of actual hostilities is not far dis[illegible]. The contest will of course be compara[illegible] to nothing but the contest of a lot of [illegible] of prey dividing the carcass they have [illegible], by the law of relative strength But [illegible] would be little pity for the Sick Man if [illegible] should prove his dying struggle He [illegible] to have died a good while ago He has [illegible] unable for twenty five years and more to [illegible] any satisfactory excuse for continuing [illegible] The people who hold the dominant civilization of the country long since came to [illegible] judgment that there was no propriety in [illegible] one of the best quarters of Europe [illegible] as it is with a European race, trodden down and stamped out by Asiatic barbarism and brutality

Judge Sawyer in the San Francisco theatre has declared the civil rights act unconstitutional and void so far as it enacts penal ties for refusing to admit a person to a theatre on account of color The supreme court of the United States recently decided the act void in other important particulars. The law is, for all practical purposes dead

It is understood some of the Democratic candidates for Legislative honors propose to make the canvass of the county by proxy That speaks well for their discretion Should they by any mischance be elected they might serve the people acceptably in the Legislature in the same way

ARE THEY PLEDGED?

PORTLAND May 2 1876

To the Editor of the Oregonian

Will you permit me through your columns to inquire of our several candidates for the State Senate and members of the House of Representatives who of them stand under some written pledge, or pledges if elected? And is it exactly the right thing for any man to use the power of an association which they may chance to manipulate to compel candidates to sign written pledges to them as to what they will do if elected Most of the candidates I know are men of responsibility and character, and I believe they all are, and I believe the candidates elected will sustain and carry out the wishes of the people of this county in an honorable straight forward way And I believe the two parties have chosen candidates in whom confidence may be reposed to represent the whole people and their interests This would be an opportune time to know if members of the legislature elected from this county or from any county are going to the legislature tied and bound by some writing which some gentleman will carry in his carpet bag I for one am any thing but persuaded that to execute a bill of sale of himself in advance will tend to make a member useful or more trustworthy Any measure that really is for the public interests every candidate who shall be elected will I believe earnestly strive to secure by appropriate legislation Any writing signed under misapprehension and in such a questionable shape would certainly be fraudulent and void

NOTICE.

Any business of mine, will be attended to by my son "Chas. F. Wightman," who will supply the "Wightman Process" to those suffering from Hemorrhoid or Piles, and diseases of the Rectum; his experience in the "Field Hospitals" of the "Fifteenth Army Corps," Gen. Sherman, during the whole of the late war, was probably greater than Surgeons have in a life time, out of the service. He will, no doubt, give every satisfaction to those needing his services as "Assistant Surgeon" or otherwise. Thanking the citizens of Portland, and elsewhere in the State, Idaho and Washington Territory for their confidence and liberality. I hope our short acquaintance has been of great advantage to all. My address until further notice will be "San Francisco, Cal." In Portland, "Chas F. Wightman N. E. cor. Stark and Fourth street, P. O. box 247."

EUGENE ITEMS.

Under date of May 29th, our Eugene correspondent sends the following:

Our young folks are of the opinion that the Oregonian correspondent from this place is telling stories out of school.

The Springfield express still continues, and as the boys now carry a small arsenal with them, the footpads who infested the road have not troubled them lately.

Several of our young men had intended to start for the "salt chuck" this morning in a sail boat, but as the sheriff tied up their boat on Saturday, they have concluded to remain awhile with us.

There is nothing in the way of amusements on the tapis for this week, except a picnic, which, weather permitting, is to take place on Thursday, at Spencer's Butte, one mile south of this city. A very pleasant time is anticipated.

Our little town was very lively last Saturday, the farmers having about finished putting in their grain, after a long, tedious, wet time and calico selling at sixteen yards for one dollar, they hitched up the big wagon and brought in the whole family.

Politics are running light. The Democrats have about given up the idea of electing either the sheriff, clerk, assessor, or treasurer, and they will have to use every exertion if they elect their nominee for senator, as the Republican candidate is a very popular man.

The camp meeting at Pleasant Hill took all the young folks away on Sunday, and the streets looked dreary enough. In the afternoon one of our "conquered but not subdued" citizens and a true "loil" one had a war of words which served to cheer up the boys who had to stay at home on account of scarcity of stamps or lack of teams to carry them to the meeting, the gentleman of Southern chivalry coming out second best.

DANGEROUS AND AN OUTRAGE.

EAST PORTLAND, May 29, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

If it is in order, and you will permit me to do so through your paper, I wish, as a citizen of East Portland, to say a few words concerning what I consider to be an outrage in the community on the Sabbath day, and also a dangerous thing; viz: I consider that the action of the Emmet Guard on yesterday, in the Park at East Portland, in the matter of target shooting was an outrage to the feelings of quiet loving people, as well as a very bad example to set for our young people on the Sabbath day. I consider it very dangerous to be shooting where the bullets are liable to hit persons passing the road, as was the case yesterday as I can readily attest, for I and my family were stopped and peremptorily ordered back, as we were in danger of being shot if we passed on. So we had to go a long way out of our way to avoid danger. Now, let me say here that the order to go back was given by a man I suppose to be of the Emmet Guards, as he was dressed in uniform and had a gun. I remonstrated with him about it, but he said he was obeying orders and could not help it. I, for one, do hereby protest against such practices, and hope that in future we will be spared such doings, and I would ask the question of the proper authorities, if it is lawful to allow shooting on any day of the week where the bullets are liable to pass across a traveled road where human life is endangered. Hoping this may cause the matter to be looked into by the proper ones to do so, Respectfully yours, J. M. COULTER.

The O. S. N. Co. will charge only half fare to those attending the Teachers' Institute to be held at The Dalles on the 8th June.

Any person knowing the whereabouts of J. M. Ray, will confer a favor by writing to John A. Ray, Gardner City, Douglas county.

A new lodge of Odd Fellows was instituted at Looking Glass, Douglas county, last Saturday, which we are told will be called Mirror Lodge.

The candidates in the various counties have very slim audiences at their discussions. The farmers are too busy to fool their time away on politics.

Roseburg Lodge, No. 5, I. O. G. T., at their last meeting elected J. S. Cockleread and B. F. Matthews as delegates to the Grand Lodge to convene in Salem, June 11.

Col. Wilson and Capt. Kempff will both proceed north on the Shubrick, when that steamer leaves Astoria on a cruise of the Thirteenth Lighthouse District.

Lieut. Wittick passed through Roseburg Wednesday, on his way to Vancouver with two military convicts. They are each sentenced to confinement for four years for desertion. They are from Fort Klamath.

By a letter from Superintendent Bunnell the Roseburg Plaindealer is informed that the quartz mill of the Esther mine was started within two hours after the arrival of the necessary supplies last week, and is now actively employed on splendid paying ore.

The Jacksonville Times says: "We were one day last week shown a fine gold nugget recently purchased by C. C. Beekman. It is entirely free from blemish and worth $540. The lucky finder refused to reveal the locality in which it was found and also requested that his name be kept secret.

A gentleman named A. Griener, residing on Howell prairie, met with a painful accident while en route home from Salem. When near the Fair Grounds the horse which he was riding stumbled and fell. The rider's right leg being beneath the horse, both bones were broken above the ankle

Regulate the Bodily Functions.

This advice should be especially heeded by those who suffer from an irregular habit of body or disorders of the bladder or kidneys. Inactivity of the bowels or of the urinary organs is speedily rectified by that wholesome aperient and sterling invigorative diuretic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters; and, as all affections of the organs of discharge have a strong tendency to become chronic, and that very rapidly, the use of the Bitters should not be delayed a moment longer than is necessary. The action of this inestimable corrective upon the bowels differs widely from that of a drastic purgative, since it is never violent or abrupt, but always gentle and natural, and its effects upon the bladder and kidneys are strengthening as well as mildly stimulative. The healthful impetus which it gives to digestion also renders it a most desirable general tonic.

Sore Throat, Cough, Cold and similar troubles, if suffered to progress, result in serious pulmonary affections oftentimes incurable. Brown's Bronchial Troches reach directly the seat of the disease, and give almost instant relief.

Choice Farms for Sale.

4,000 ACRES, IN QUANTITIES TO SUIT PURCHASERS

230 ACRES DUE SOUTH AND ADJOINING the Railroad Depot at Salem, all under cultivation, and suitable for grain or vegetables.

946 Acres, four miles southeast of Salem, on the railroad, with Mill creek running through it. This is the choicest farming land in Marion county, with fine springs, consisting in part of the old Rector donation claim, on which I raised the past year fifty bushels of wheat and three tons of timothy per acre. The first crop of oats ever raised on part of this land measured ninety-four bushels per acre, grain weighed and ground chained, by Mr. Alfred Stanton of Salem.

3,700 Acres of prairie and light brush land, with timber for farming purposes, bounded by the Willamette River for four miles, beautiful lake on the east, boat landings all along the river, commencing four miles north of Salem—all choice grain land—the largest and most suitable body of land to be found in the Willamette Valley to be purchased by a colony. To be sold from $15 to $25 per acre. This land will all be immediately resurveyed, and can be sold in larger or smaller parcels, to suit purchasers. It can be subdivided to the best possible advantage, and I can offer any person or persons, or colony of persons, desiring to purchase homes in the best part of the Willamette Valley, near the city of Salem and within reach of the best social advantages, as well as most favorably located with respect to markets, greater advantages, on more favorable terms, than they can ever expect to realize again.

BLUE AND GRAY

"Oh, mother what do they mean by blue
And what do they mean by gray
Was heard from the lips of a little child
As she bounded in from play
The mother's eyes filled with tears
She turned to her darling fair
And smoothed away from the sunny brow
Its treasures of golden hair

"Why, mother's eyes are blue my sweet
And grandpa's hair is gray,
And the love we bear our darling child
Grows stronger every day
"But what did they mean" persisted the child
"For I saw two cripples to-day,
And one of them said he fought for the blue
The other said he fought for the gray

"Now he of the blue had lost a leg,
The other had but one arm,
And both seemed worn, and weary, and sad
Yet their greeting was kind and warm
They told of battles in days gone by—
Till it made my young blood thrill
The leg was lost in the Wilderness fight,
And the arm at Malvern Hill

"They sat on the stone by the farm yard gate
And talked for an hour or more,
Till their eyes grew bright, their hearts seemed warm,
With fighting their battles over,
And in parting at last, with a friendly grasp
In a kindly, brotherly way,
Each called on God to speed the time
Uniting the blue and the gray

Then the mother thought of other days—
Two stalwart boys from her riven
How they knelt at her side and lisping prayed
"Our Father which art in Heaven
How one wore the gray, and one wore the blue
How they'd passed away from sight,
And had gone to a land where gray and blue
Are merged in colors of light

And she answered her darling with golden hair
While her heart was sadly wrung
[illegible] the thoughts awakened in that sad hour
By her [illegible], prattling tongue
"The blue and the gray are the colors of God,
They are seen in the sky at even
But many a noble, gallant soul
Has [illegible] them [illegible] to Heaven"

WINSOME WOMEN

THE [illegible] OF WOMAN'S ATTRACTIVENESS TO MEN

Walking up Union square the other day in company with a gentleman not yet out of the [illegible], we met a lady whose hair Time had [illegible] "That," said he, "is the most beautiful [illegible] in this city. I believe her lovers [illegible] more attention than that of any woman I know." This led me to [illegible] of the women in history whose charms [illegible] outlasted youth. Aspasia was thirty [illegible] of age when she attracted Pericles, and [illegible] her reputation for beauty and powers [illegible] position was undiminished. Cleopatra [illegible] Marc Antony when she was more [illegible] thirty, and her beauty was undimmed [illegible] Livia was thirty-three when [illegible] of Augustus, and her charms [illegible] power over him. Diana, of [illegible] thirty six when she made captive [illegible] of Henry II (then Duc d'Orleans), [illegible] eighteen years old. Nor did age [illegible], for until the day of [illegible] the age of sixty-seven, she was [illegible] as well as most [illegible] of the court, which was famed [illegible]. Then there was Anne [illegible] de l'Enclos, Bianca Capello, [illegible], Catherine II of Russia, [illegible] the famous French tragedienne [illegible], who was probably [illegible] of all. Those women [illegible] power of fascination long [illegible] when feminine charms are supposed [illegible] away. Most of these women [illegible] had adopted French [illegible] that while French [illegible] really as beautiful as either [illegible] women, they retain [illegible] long after their [illegible]. All Yankee [illegible] have become faded [illegible]. Retention of charms depends [illegible] upon a proper attention to [illegible] of the person, but it depends [illegible] on the careful cultivation of the [illegible], the excellencies that appeal [illegible] aesthetic sense. The [illegible] marries to enjoy more social [illegible] she can possibly possess as a [illegible]. It is her delight to attract the [illegible] society, and to this end she [illegible] graces, personal and mental, [illegible] no art of fascination that comes [illegible] untried. It is not enough [illegible] to win love or admiration—that is [illegible] it is her triumph to hold [illegible] and English women have [illegible] the object of their education and [illegible] of marrying, too frequently [illegible] that they lavishly [illegible] to marriage, and descend [illegible] or indifferent [illegible]. The cultivation of the feminine [illegible], and the girl who [illegible] at twenty-eight is passe [illegible] largely upon [illegible] of charming. A frowsy woman [illegible] morally very excellent, but [illegible] will be far less than that of a fascinating [illegible] sister. It is time that women [illegible] that beauty, grace, culture and [illegible] attention may be made powerful [illegible]. The representative French [illegible] and [illegible] her charms [illegible] vanity that longs for [illegible] and adorers. The American [illegible] of the demi-monde pursues the [illegible] regarding outward charms. But [illegible] to a few noble, appreciative, lovely [illegible] to grow old beautifully and gracefully, [illegible] themselves places in the hearts [illegible] of men and entrench themselves [illegible] of their purest love so firm [illegible] no rival can dethrone them. Their [illegible] their ardent lovers. Aged men [illegible] all the admiration, respect and [illegible] of their youth, and young men [illegible] and hope their own young loves [illegible] live to be as lovely as they

The present condition of financial affairs in our local market though not indicative of a great degree of activity in trade and commerce is nevertheless one which lends a good deal of encouragement to the hope of future business prosperity. As the spring opened there were a good many features that looked unpropitious and those who are not blessed with a good deal of the sanguine predicted a dull season throughout but circumstances have been better than their fears and nearly everybody has come through so far quite as well and many of them in better condition than they anticipated and there is nothing in sight ahead to render the balance of the year less favorable than that through which we have already passed. Capital is sufficient to meet the ordinary wants of trade and promises to be in ample supply to obviate any stringency when the demand for it is increased by the movement of the surplus wheat, fruit, wool and other crops in the State which are almost certain to be large

From the East we have late advices which put a little better appearance on commercial affairs but still the picture is not a very bright one. Monetary matters in New York banks wear a more hopeful aspect than they have for the last month or two. Deposits specie and loans are on the increase. But so are the exports of gold. And the small driblets of silver that our legislators presume will take the place of the $40 000 000 of postal checks instead of relieving the demands for change and small bills have become an attraction for rings and speculators.

Many in Chicago who have borrowed money and mortgaged valuable property as security now realize that they are paying too high a rate of interest and some are disposed to sacrifice their property rather than to continue such interest with increasing taxes. Capitalists in some instances have preferred reducing the rate of interest from 9 to 7 per cent rather than to take the property for the debt. The Journal of Commerce of that city says

Evidences daily multiply in proof of what we asserted before the panic of September 1873, viz that rent of money in Chicago was too high—that those who attempted to carry such burdens must ultimately fail. There is no continued, legitimate business in even this rich growing prosperous Western country that will enable any man to pay a semi annual interest of more than 2½ per cent.

Foreign Markets.

The New York Produce Exchange Weekly says in regard to the grain market. The course of the French markets should be closely watched during the next few weeks as the holders and buyers of grain in that country will the soonest feel weather and political effects and always act more quickly than the cooler blooded English. Besides the French merchants have several factors to work out their sum of supplies through wider resources in America, India and the colonies. The question of war has and will have some influence more or less on all the grain marts of the world. Turkey has per official statement men and ships enough in number and efficiency to shut in the Black Sea, the Russian navy and the commercial fleet, and thus cut off supplies on which France, Switzerland and other continental countries are especially dependent for their breadstuffs.

Home Produce Market.

This branch of business is not active except in a small way and the wholesale, jobbing and commission houses are doing comparatively little in it. Wheat comes forward now very slowly, and but a few thousand bushels have changed hands since the middle of the month. Flour is still held at quotations, and a fair supply is in the hands of dealers, who appear to be much dissatisfied with the results of the season's trade so far. Wool which is generally moving rapidly at this time of the year has yet reached the market in small lots only owing to the backwardness of the season and low prices. Even at the low rates current very few dealers are anxious to purchase as nothing much is promised in the future for any speculative transaction. With an earnest wish that it were otherwise in the words of an exchange we cannot banish from our mind the fear that matters will not mend much in this and other regards until the demand in other countries for our produce and manufactures shall supersede the necessity of shipment from this country either gold or silver
